

§ 256.12

agency which is indebted to the employee that such money is owed and has assigned the payment of that money to the Commission; or

(3) On the basis of any factual or legal argument that was decided on the merits adversely to the employee in a court of competent jurisdiction.

(b) In determining whether the Chief Financial Officer's decision concerning the existence or amount of the employee's debt is clearly erroneous, the hearing official shall be bound by the relevant Federal statutes and regulations governing the program which gave rise to the debt, and general principles of the law of the United States, if relevant.

§ 256.12 Standards for determining extreme financial hardship.

(a) An offset will be considered to produce an extreme financial hardship for an employee if the offset prevents the employee from meeting the costs necessarily incurred for essential subsistence expenses of the employee and his spouse and dependents. Essential subsistence expenses consist of the costs incurred for medical care, food, housing, clothing, and transportation only.

(b) In determining whether an offset would prevent the employee from meeting the essential subsistence costs described in paragraph (a) of this section, the following matters shall be considered—

(1) The income from all sources of the employee and his spouse and dependents;

(2) The extent to which the assets of the employee and his spouse and dependents are available to pay the debt or the essential subsistence expenses;

(3) Whether the essential subsistence costs have been minimized to the greatest extent possible;

(4) The extent to which the employee and his spouse and dependents can borrow money to pay the debt or the essential subsistence expenses; and

(5) The extent to which the employee and his spouse and dependents have other exceptional expenses that should be taken into account, and whether these expenses have been minimized.

35 CFR Ch. I (7–1–00 Edition)

§ 256.13 Collection of debts on behalf of other agencies by offsetting the pay of a Commission employee.

(a) Upon completion of the procedures established by the creditor agency under 5 U.S.C. 5514, the creditor agency shall forward to the Commission a certified statement of the existence of the debt. This document shall include a statement that the employee owes the debt, the amount and basis of the debt, the date on which payment is due, the date on which the claim against the debtor accrued, if different from the payment due date, and a statement that agency regulations implementing 5 U.S.C. 5514 have been approved by the Office of Personnel Management.

(b) Unless the employee has consented to the salary offset in writing or signed a statement acknowledging receipt of the required procedures and the writing or statement is attached to the debt claim form, the creditor agency must also indicate the actions taken under section 5514(b) and give the dates the actions were taken.

(c) If, after the debt claim has been submitted by the creditor agency, the employee transfers to a position in another agency, the Commission will certify the total amount of the collection made on the debt. One copy of the certification will be furnished to the employee, and one copy will be furnished to the creditor agency, together with notice of the employee's transfer. The original of the debt claim form shall be inserted in the employee's official personnel folder, together with the certification of the amount which has been collected. Upon receiving the official personnel folder, it will be the responsibility of the new paying agency to resume the collection from the individual's current pay and notify the employee and the creditor agency of the resumption. In cases in which an employee transfers to the Commission while a debt is being collected from him by another Federal agency by offset, the Commission will resume the collection and notify the employee that it is doing so.

(d) For collections of debts by offset under this section, the Commission
